Art Unit: 1794

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on September 20, 2007 has been entered.

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The current status of each application listed on page 1 of the spec should be updated if not already done. Appropriate correction is required.

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 65 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. There is no support in the original disclosure for "at least 45 ppm" (claim 65, line 4), which can be corrected by changing "at least 45 ppm" to "45 to 75 ppm".

5. Claims 65, 68 and 69 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 65, line 2, a comma should be added before "wherein". In claim 68, line 1, a comma should be added after "carcass" and after "opening" and line 3, "such" should be changed to "so as". In claim 69, line 2, "such" should be changed to "so as".

Appropriate correction is required.

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 1-5, 23-25, 29-31, 33, 34, 38-40, 42-47 and 59-69 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Howarth patent in view of Hilgren et al as set forth in paragraph nos.7-8, Paper No. 030606. The Howarth patents are described in paragraph no. 6, paper No. 030606. Further, finding the optimum contact time (claims 60, 62, 65), the optimum time after formation of using the microbiocidal solution (claims 61, 63), the optimum microbiocide and bromine residual concentrations (claims 65-69), the optimum travel time and water temperature (claim 66) and the optimum carcass temperature after chilling (claims 68,69) would require nothing more than routine experimentation by one reasonably skilled in this art.

8. Applicant's arguments filed September 20, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Although the treatment solution in either Howarth patent differs from the treatment solution in Hilgren et al, as applicant contends, this does not detract from the disclosure in Hilgren et al that applicant's concept of using a spray and spray probe to treat the inside of eviscerated poultry carcasses with antimicrobial solutions is well known. Hilgren et al is analogous to and properly combinable with either Howarth patent since all are concerned with reducing microbial contamination in and on poultry carcasses. Applicant is also referred to paragraph no. 3, Paper No. 20070619.

9. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
